Dear Dr. Kent:

The Board of Psychologist Examiners has received a copy of your e-mail correspondence of August 10 and 11, 2006 to the Executive Director of the State Board of Nursing.

In your e-mail, you state (referring to the Board of Psychologist Examiners) the following: "According to the Rules & Regulations, in the event that a complaint is materially misrepresented, the complaint may not be regarded as privileged and protected." To my knowledge, this language does not appear either in this Board's rules or statutes.

As you know, the complaint filed against you by M.K. was dismissed by the Board's Complaint Screening Committee on March 20, 2006 because it was without merit. Therefore, the Board considers this matter closed.

Sincerely,

Maxine McCarthy
Executive Director
